Choosing Books for the Equality Area

- ✓ Books that challenge racial stereotypes
- ✓ Recommended books on top and then speak to the class about what their favourite books are
- ✓ Fiction/non-fiction and history
- ✓ Class vote about which are the popular books

Focus of the Meeting:

The Behaviour Curriculum in our School – re-designing our Anti-bullying child friendly policy

Children brought ideas from classes about what a good one would look like and it's function, purpose and the intended outcome and impact.

Contributions from:

Oak, Rowan, Larch, Lime and Hawthorn Classes

Minutes:

Year 3:

- Straight away you know what to do.
- Rainbow colours – use simple words that we all understand.

Year 4:

- Motto's easy to remember
- Poem – Stop – what to do
- We need to know what all the different types of bullying
- Cyber, emotional, physical – they need to know
- What to do if...

Year 5:

- Lot's of people said it needs to have more colour it needs to be more eye-catching

- We need symbols
- There could be a bullying sign which means stop!
- No-one will look at it – it needs to pop!
- Instead of STOP, STOP – start telling other people!
- Don't be a bystander...
- Rainbow Rules! Rainbow Colours – a few to remember
- Inspirational Quotes – Be a buddy not a bully.

Year 6:

- Definitely family, faith, flourish that's who we are.
- It needs to be displayed everywhere – on the way out – on the back of the toilet doors – you just sit and read them.
- Simple, pictures can mean more than words.
- Put stickers on it.
- Powerful sentences.

Actions:

- Mrs. Lee to order the books that we have chosen
- Ava to ask dad about the possibility of book birdhouses
